THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
EUGENE DIVISION

PETER GARCIA,

Plaintiff,

V.

WATERFALL COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER, INC., an Oregon Corporation,

Defendant.

NO. 6:20-CV-1800-MC

DEFENDANT WATERFALL
COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER'S
RULE 12(b) AND 12(b)(6) MOTION
TO DISMISS
REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

MOTION

Defendant Waterfall Community Health Center, Inc. (“Defendant” or “WCHC”) moves the Court for an Order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) and 12(b)(6) dismissing Plaintiff Peter Garcia’s (“Plaintiff”) Complaint on the grounds Plaintiff (1) failed to state facts upon which relief may be granted and (2) failed to exhaust administrative remedies.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff alleges WCHC violated the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (“ADEA”) at 29 U.S.C. Chapter 14, Oregon’s Anti-Discrimination Law at ORS 659A.030, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) at 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq.

In June 2019, WCHC began searching for a new Chief Medical Officer. Plaintiff applied for the position in August 2019. He was not hired.

Plaintiff filed a Charge of Discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) alleging WCHC discriminated against him on the basis of age in violation of the ADEA. In July 2020, Plaintiff received a Dismissal and Notice of Rights from the EEOC, after which Plaintiff filed his initial Complaint against WCHC. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s initial Complaint and related exhibits are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

In his initial Complaint, Plaintiff maintained WCHC discriminated against him based on age in violation of the ADEA and ORS 659A.030. Plaintiff later amended his pleadings, alleging WCHC also discriminated against him based on his disability in violation of the ADA.<sup>1</sup> A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's Amended Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Standard of review

To survive a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, “a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to ‘state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.’” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 173 L. Ed. 2d 868 (2009) (quoting Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570, 127 S. Ct. 1955, 167 L. Ed. 2d 929 (2007)). Although “a complaint attacked by a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss does not need detailed factual allegations,” the complaint must contain “more than labels and conclusions[.]” Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555. Moreover, “a formulaic recitation of a cause of action’s elements will not do.” Id.; see also Tannerite Sports, LLC v. Jerent Enters., LLC, No.

<sup>1</sup> On February 1, 2021, Defendant WCHC sent Plaintiff a notice of WCHC's intent to file a Rule 11 Motion for Sanctions. This notice stated that Plaintiff's Complaint was frivolous, given Plaintiff's history of litigation, and that Plaintiff's Complaint was filed for the improper purpose of harassing WCHC and increasing the costs of litigation. The notice also stated that Plaintiff's Complaint lacked evidentiary support, and that Plaintiff's other, nearly indistinguishable complaints filed against other healthcare entities constituted a blatant attempt to extract settlements. Plaintiff failed to respond to WCHC's Rule 11 notice. Due to Plaintiff's failure to withdraw his Complaint, WCHC intends to file a Motion for Sanctions based on Plaintiff's status as a vexatious litigant. Plaintiff has filed similar complaints, frequently using recycled language and claims, against a variety of healthcare entities across the country. At a minimum, Plaintiff has filed nine (9) complaints for employment discrimination, including the complaint Plaintiff filed against WCHC. These complaints include, but may not be limited to: Garcia v. Waterfall Community Health Clinic (District of Oregon); Garcia v. Coast Community Health Center (District of Oregon); Garcia v. Providence Health Systems (District of Oregon); Garcia v. Alicare Medical Management (District of New Hampshire); Garcia v. Haines City HMA, LLC (Middle District of Florida); Garcia v. The Delta Companies (Northern District of Texas); Garcia v. Maine General Health (District of Maine); Garcia v. University System of Georgia/Stamps Health Center (Northern District of Georgia); Garcia v. Primary Health Care (Southern District of Iowa).

1 6:15-cv-00180-AA, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 57942, at *3 (D. Or. May 2, 2016) (quoting Iqbal, 2 556 U.S. at 681 and Starr v. Baca, 652 F.3d 1202, 1216 (9th Cir. 2011)) (noting that “bare 3 assertions” that are merely “formulaic recitation[s]” are “conclusory and not entitled to be 4 assumed true” and “to state a plausible claim for relief, the counterclaim ‘must contain sufficient 5 allegations of underlying facts’ to support its legal conclusions.”). A complaint will not “suffice 6 if it tenders ‘naked assertion[s]’ devoid of ‘further factual enhancement.’” Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678 7 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555, 557).

8       Although “legal conclusions can provide the framework of a complaint, they must be 9 supported by factual allegations.” Id. at 679. These factual allegations will not support a finding 10 of “facial plausibility” if the plaintiff fails to plead “factual content that allows the court to draw 11 the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.” Id. at 678.
 12 Therefore, a complaint must offer “more than a sheer possibility that a defendant has acted 13 unlawfully.” Id. (emphasis added). “Where a complaint pleads facts that are ‘merely consistent 14 with’ a defendant’s liability, it ‘stops short of the line between possibility and plausibility of 15 ‘entitlement to relief.’’” Id. (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 557).

16       Generally, “[c]ourts have a duty to construe pro se pleadings liberally, including pro se 17 motions as well as complaints.” Bernhardt v. L.A. Cty., 339 F.3d 920, 925 (9th Cir. 2003).
 18 However, “[w]hen giving liberal construction to a pro se civil rights complaint . . . the court 19 ‘may not supply essential elements of the claim that were not initially pled.’” Murphy v. Wilhelm, 20 No. 3:19-cv-01733-AC, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 249512, at *6 (D. Or. Dec. 14, 2020) (emphasis 21 added) (citing Bruns v. Nat'l Credit Union Admin., 122 F.3d 1251, 1257 (9th Cir. 1997)). “Vague 22 and conclusory allegations . . . are not sufficient to withstand a motion to dismiss.” Ivey v. Bd. of 23 Regents, 673 F.2d 266, 268 (9th Cir. 1982).

24       Plaintiff is a pro se litigant; however, he is not the type of pro se litigant courts seek to 25 protect through the liberal construction of pleadings. In his resume, attached to his Complaint, 26 Plaintiff identifies himself as an “M.D., J.D., M.S.” His resume further explains he has a law 27 degree from Western State University College of Law. As an attorney, Plaintiff should not be

1 given the benefit of liberal construction courts typically afford pro se litigants who are not 2 lawyers.

3 B. Plaintiff fails to state a claim under the ADEA upon which relief may be granted.

4 The Court should dismiss Plaintiff's ADEA claim for failure to state a claim under Rule 5 12(b)(6). To establish a failure-to-hire claim for age discrimination, a plaintiff's complaint must 6 allege that: (1) the plaintiff was at least forty years old at the time of the defendant's allegedly 7 discriminatory conduct; (2) the plaintiff applied and was rejected; (3) the plaintiff was qualified 8 for the position; and (4) "either substantially younger applicants with equal or inferior 9 qualifications were selected or the plaintiff was rejected under circumstances otherwise 'giving 10 rise to an inference of age discrimination.'" Bellinger v. Coos Bay Sch. Dist., No. 6:13-cv-01443-11 AA, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 157019, at *7 (D. Or. Nov. 5, 2014) (quoting Diaz v. Eagle 12 Produce, Ltd., 521 F.3d 1201, 1207 (9th Cir. 2008)). Once a plaintiff proves a prima facie case 13 the burden shifts "to the employer to articulate a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its 14 adverse employment action." Diaz, 521 F.3d at 1207. Only after an employer satisfies this 15 burden may an employee "prove that the reason advanced by the employer constitutes mere 16 pretext for unlawful discrimination." Id.

17 As an initial matter, Plaintiff's Amended Complaint fails to allege he is over forty (40) 18 years old. Instead, Plaintiff vaguely asserts that WCHC "discriminated against [him] because of 19 his age" without offering factual allegations to support this assertion. Amend. Compl. at ¶ 35.
 20 Yet Plaintiff is obligated to provide "more than labels and conclusions[.]" Twombly, 550 U.S. at 21 555. Furthermore, the Court is not bound to accept Plaintiff's legal conclusion that WCHC 22 allegedly discriminated against him based on age. See Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 679. Plaintiff thus fails 23 to satisfy the first required element. Although Plaintiff alleges that he applied for the Chief 24 Medical Officer position with WCHC and was rejected, presumably satisfying only the second 25 element, Plaintiff fails to show that he is qualified. He also fails to allege that a substantially 26 younger applicant was hired or that he was rejected under circumstances giving rise to an 27

1 inference of discrimination. Therefore, Plaintiff fails to satisfy the third and fourth elements
 2 required to state a claim under the ADEA.

3 Plaintiff's Complaint fails to support his unfounded assertion he "was the more qualified 4 candidate." Amend. Compl. at ¶ 26. Plaintiff cites Geiger v. Tower Auto., 579 F.3d 614, 624 (6th 5 Cir. 2009) in his Amended Complaint for the proposition that his qualifications "may be 6 demonstrated by evidence that the plaintiff had significant experience in a similar position and 7 had received positive performance reviews." Id. at ¶ 20. Plaintiff attempts to support his 8 contention he is qualified without, however, providing any supporting "factual allegations." See 9 Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 679. First, the Court is not bound to accept this legal conclusion. See Iqbal, 10 556 U.S. at 678. Second, Geiger v. Tower Auto is Sixth Circuit precedent and therefore not 11 controlling in the Ninth Circuit. Third, Plaintiff fails to acknowledge the obvious deficiencies in 12 his qualifications which preclude his assertion that he was indeed qualified.

13 More specifically, Plaintiff alleges he received "excellent evaluations" from Community 14 Health Centers in Orlando, Florida. Amend. Compl. at ¶ 19. He further alleges, without factual 15 support, that he "was the more qualified candidate" according to the "requirements listed in the 16 job description." Id. at ¶ 26. However, Plaintiff's only factual allegations relating to his 17 qualifications are his so-called "excellent evaluations" and the exhibits he attaches to his 18 Complaint. These contentions regarding his qualifications are "naked assertion[s]" which cannot 19 survive a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss. Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 20 555, 557) (noting that "a complaint [does not] suffice if it tenders 'naked assertion[s]' devoid of 21 'further factual enhancement.'").

22 Additionally, Plaintiff cannot overcome the obvious fact that he is unqualified, thus 23 failing to satisfy the third element required to state a claim under the ADEA. Plaintiff relies on 24 the evaluations he attaches to his Complaint. However, these evaluations are dated 1997 through 25 1999. Compl., Ex. B. Plaintiff cannot be qualified if his allegedly "excellent" employment 26 evaluations are over twenty (20) years old.

1 Plaintiff's Complaint also fails to address whether he is licensed to practice medicine in 2 Oregon. Plaintiff attaches as an exhibit to his Complaint the Oregon medical license of Dr. Tedd
 3 McDonald, the candidate who was ultimately selected by WCHC for the Chief Medical Officer 4 position. Id., Ex. C. Yet Plaintiff evasively fails to mention whether he himself has an active, 5 unexpired Oregon license. Id. His own resume omits this information. Id. Therefore, Plaintiff has 6 not alleged that he is a qualified candidate and cannot satisfy the third element.

7 Plaintiff's Complaint also fails to satisfy the fourth element because he does not allege 8 either that a substantially younger applicant with equal or inferior qualifications was selected, or 9 that he was rejected under circumstances giving rise to an inference of age discrimination. See 10 Bellinger, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 157019, at *7 (quoting Diaz, 521 F.3d at 1207). In fact, 11 Plaintiff readily admits that Dr. Tedd McDonald "is the same age" as Plaintiff. Amend. Compl.
 12 at ¶ 24. Plaintiff therefore fails to show that WCHC hired a "substantially younger" individual to 13 fill the position.

14 Plaintiff alleges only that WCHC's hiring of Dr. McDonald "is properly labeled as 15 pretext and was done in an effort to justify the failure to pursue Dr. Garcia." Id. at ¶ 28.
 16 However, this is a legal conclusion which the Court is not bound to accept. See Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 17 679. Moreover, Plaintiff's Complaint does not provide any factual allegations to support 18 Plaintiff's assertion that WCHC's hiring decision was pretext, and Plaintiff may not label 19 WCHC's hiring decision as pretext without first properly satisfying the four elements required to 20 state a claim under the ADEA. See Diaz, 521 F.3d at 1207.

21 Finally, Plaintiff fails to assert that he was rejected under circumstances that give rise to 22 an inference of age discrimination. By failing to do so, and by failing to show that the individual 23 hired for the position was "substantially younger," Plaintiff cannot satisfy the fourth element.
 24 Plaintiff's Complaint provides no factual allegations under which the Court may even infer age 25 discrimination. Dr. McDonald, whom WCHC ultimately hired for the position, is the same age as 26 Plaintiff, qualified and licensed to practice medicine in Oregon. Plaintiff relies only on 27 conclusory statements regarding WCHC's hiring decision, including: "it is clear that Dr. Garcia

1 was the more qualified candidate;” and “the facts in the case will demonstrate McDonald’s 2 training and clinical experience is a poor match to provide clinical leadership at Waterfall.” 3 Amend. Compl. at ¶ 26, 24. Plaintiff also alleges that “Waterfall never responded to any of Dr.
 4 Garcia’s communications . . . Waterfall eventually hired another physician.” Id. at ¶ 21-22. This 5 is a non sequitur; WCHC’s hiring of Dr. McDonald does not indicate that Plaintiff was not hired 6 due to his age. Plaintiff’s Complaint thus fails to provide any facts under which the Court may 7 infer age discrimination.

8 In sum, Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to allege that he is within the protected age group, that 9 he was qualified for the position, that WCHC hired a substantially younger applicant with equal 10 or inferior qualifications or that Plaintiff was rejected under circumstances that give rise to an 11 inference of age discrimination. Therefore, Plaintiff’s ADEA cause of action cannot survive a 12 Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss.

13 C. Plaintiff fails to state a claim under ORS 659A.030 upon which relief may be 14 granted.

15 To state a claim under ORS 649A.030, a plaintiff must show that an employer refused to 16 hire an individual “because of” his age. ORS 659A.030(1)(a); see also Ossanna v. Nike, Inc., 290 17 Or. App. 16, 32, 415 P.3d 55, 65 (2018) (noting that ORS 659A.030 requires a plaintiff “to show 18 that the plaintiff’s protected characteristic caused discrimination.”). “The standard for 19 establishing a prima facie case of discrimination under Oregon law is identical to that used in 20 federal law.” Snead v. Metro. Prop. & Cas. Ins. Co., 237 F.3d 1080, 1087 (9th Cir. 2001). The 21 “because of” language in ORS 659A.030 requires a plaintiff to show that “age was a but-for 22 cause of an adverse employment decision.” Rogers v. Or. Trail Elec. Consumers Coop., Inc., No.
 23 3:10-CV-1337-AC, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 65883, at *29 (D. Or. May 8, 2012) (emphasis 24 added) (also noting that “Oregon courts use federal interpretations of the ADEA to inform the 25 interpretation of the [Oregon] age discrimination statute.”).

26 Plaintiff’s ORS 659A.030 claim fails for the same reasons his ADEA claim fails. See 27 analysis supra. First, Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to state his age. Plaintiff merely alleges that 1 WCHC “discriminated against [him] because of his age in violation of ORS 659A.030.” Amend.

 2 Compl. at ¶ 44. Plaintiff provides no factual allegations in support of this assertion, and “a 3 formulaic recitation of a cause of action’s elements will not do.” See Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555; 4 see also Tannerite, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 57942, at *3 (quoting Starr, 652 F.3d at 1216) (“to 5 state a plausible claim for relief, the counterclaim ‘must contain sufficient allegations of 6 underlying facts’ to support its legal conclusions.”). Furthermore, the Court is not bound to 7 accept Plaintiff’s legal conclusion that WCHC allegedly discriminated against him based on age.
 8 See Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 679.

9 Plaintiff also fails to allege he is qualified for the position of Chief Medical Officer.
 10 Plaintiff’s Complaint asserts, without factual support, that he “was the more qualified candidate.” 11 Amend. Compl. at ¶ 26. The only evidence Plaintiff offers to support this assertion are his so-12 called “excellent evaluations” from a prior employer. Id. at ¶ 19; Compl., Ex. B. However, 13 Plaintiff cannot establish he is qualified where his qualifications are only supported by 14 employment evaluations that are over two decades old. Plaintiff also fails to allege whether he is 15 currently licensed to practice medicine in Oregon, but admits Dr. McDonald, who was ultimately 16 hired by WCHC, is licensed. See Compl., Ex. C.

17 Additionally, Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to include factual allegations supporting his 18 assertion he was not hired by WCHC because of his age. Plaintiff admits WCHC hired an 19 individual who is the same age as Plaintiff. Amend. Compl. at ¶ 24. Therefore, Plaintiff does no 20 more than provide baseless, conclusory assertions regarding WCHC’s alleged age-based 21 discrimination. Without more, these are merely “‘naked assertion[s]’ devoid of ‘further factual 22 enhancement.’” See Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555, 557). Therefore, 23 Plaintiff’s claim arising under ORS 659A.030 should be dismissed under 12(b)(6) for failure to 24 state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

1           D. Plaintiff failed to exhaust administrative remedies before filing suit under the ADA, 2           and Plaintiff's ADA cause of action fails to state a claim upon which relief may be
 3           granted.

4           Where a Plaintiff fails to exhaust his administrative remedies, the Court may dismiss a 5 plaintiff's claim based on "an unenumerated Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) motion." See Puente v. Cty. of 6 L.A., 358 F. App'x 909, 911 (9th Cir. 2009). Exhaustion is required where a plaintiff brings a 7 disability employment discrimination claim under the ADA. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000(e)-5(b); 42 8 U.S.C. § 12117(a). Although, as a general rule, the Court may not consider material beyond the 9 pleadings in a Rule 12(b)(6) motion, the Court may consider materials that are submitted with 10 and attached to the Complaint [and] . . . may also consider unattached evidence on which the 11 complaint 'necessarily relies' if: (1) the complaint refers to the document; (2) the document is 12 central to the plaintiff's claim; and (3) no party questions the authenticity of the document."

13 United States ex rel. Lee v. Corinthian Colls., 655 F.3d 984, 998-99 (9th Cir. 2011) (citing 14 Marder v. Lopez, 450 F.3d 445, 448 (9th Cir. 2006)).

15           Here, Plaintiff filed a Charge of Discrimination with the EEOC alleging only that WCHC 16 discriminated against him based on age. See Amend. Compl. at ¶ 7 ("Dr. Garcia filed a charge 17 with the EEOC alleging violation of the ADEA by Defendant"). Plaintiff failed to assert, or 18 otherwise mention, any alleged discrimination based on disability. The EEOC's subsequent 19 Notice of Charge of Discrimination, sent to WCHC on February 4, 2020, reveals the same.
 20 Plaintiff's Charge of Discrimination, explicitly referred to by Plaintiff in his Complaint at 21 Paragraph 7, is central to his claim and cannot be disputed based on authenticity. See Corinthian 22 Colls., 655 F.3d at 998-99 (citing Marder, 450 F.3d at 448). Therefore, the Court may properly 23 review the Charge and related documents, attached hereto as Exhibit C.

24           A Right to Sue notice from the EEOC based on age discrimination cannot substitute for a 25 Right to Sue notice based on disability discrimination. And, Plaintiff may not rely on exhaustion 26 of remedies of his ADEA claim to establish that he has exhausted administrative remedies as to 27

1 his ADA claim. The Court should, therefore, dismiss Plaintiff's cause of action arising under the 2 ADA pursuant to Rule 12(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

3 If the Court finds Plaintiff has properly exhausted the administrative remedies required 4 under his ADA claim, his disability discrimination claim should still be dismissed under Rule 5 12(b)(6) for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. To establish a claim of 6 discrimination under the ADA, a plaintiff must demonstrate: "(1) he is disabled within the 7 meaning of the ADA; (2) he is a qualified individual able to perform the essential functions of 8 the job with reasonable accommodation; and (3) he suffered an adverse employment action 9 because of his disability." Allen v. Pac. Bell, 348 F.3d 1113, 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (emphasis 10 added) (citing Nunes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 164 F.3d 1243, 1246 (9th Cir. 1999)).

11 Plaintiff alleges, under the first prong, that he suffers from "a profound bilateral hearing 12 loss" and that he "is the recipient of a cochlear implant." Amend. Compl. at ¶ 57. However, a 13 plaintiff must do more than merely demonstrate he is disabled within the meaning of the ADA 14 for his Complaint to survive a Motion to Dismiss. A plaintiff must also allege that he is 15 "qualified" and "able to perform the essential functions of the job with reasonable 16 accommodation" in order to satisfy the second prong. See Allen, 348 F.3d at 1114. Here, Plaintiff 17 fails to allege that he is "qualified." Plaintiff attempts to do so by vaguely alleging that he 18 "received excellent evaluations while at Community Health Centers in Orlando, Florida" and by 19 baldly asserting that "it is clear that Dr. Garcia was the more qualified candidate." Amend.
 20 Compl. at ¶ 19. These are precisely the type of "naked assertion[s]" which cannot survive Rule 21 12(b)(6) dismissal. Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555, 557). Plaintiff's 22 unsupported assertions of his own so-called superior qualifications are thus insufficient to 23 survive a motion to dismiss.

24 Additionally, Plaintiff fails to address the glaring defects in his professional background.
 25 Notably, Plaintiff claims he is qualified based on his "excellent evaluations" from Community 26 Health Centers in Orlando, Florida. Amend. Compl. at ¶ 19. Yet the evaluations he attaches to 27 his Complaint are dated from 1997 through 1999. Id., Ex. B. Plaintiff simply cannot be 1 “qualified” if his “excellent” employment evaluations are over two decades old. See Compl., Ex.

 2 B. Moreover, Plaintiff’s Complaint does not address whether he is even licensed to practice 3 medicine in Oregon. Plaintiff attempts to distinguish himself from the candidate that WCHC 4 selected for the position, Dr. Tedd McDonald, by attaching Dr. McDonald’s Oregon Medical 5 License. Compl., Ex. C. However, Plaintiff neglects to mention whether he is himself currently 6 licensed in Oregon. Therefore, Plaintiff has not alleged that is a “qualified” candidate and his 7 Complaint cannot survive a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss.

8 Plaintiff’s Complaint also fails to allege that he would be “able to perform the essential 9 functions of the job with reasonable accommodation.” See Allen, 348 F.3d at 1113. Instead, 10 Plaintiff contends WCHC discriminated against him based on his disability, and vaguely asserts 11 that “hearing loss among health care providers is well documented [and] organizations exist 12 which assist such individuals[.]” Amend. Compl. at ¶ 62. Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to even state 13 he would be able to perform the essential functions of the position of Chief Medical Officer with 14 reasonable accommodation for his alleged hearing loss.

15 Even if Plaintiff’s unsubstantiated assertions regarding his qualifications are sufficient, 16 Plaintiff does not satisfy the final prong, specifically that “he suffered an adverse employment 17 action because of his disability.” Allen v. Pac. Bell, 348 F.3d at 1114 (emphasis added). Indeed, 18 Plaintiff provides no factual allegations indicating that WCHC even had knowledge of Plaintiff’s 19 disability. Instead, Plaintiff alleges only: “The plaintiff can usually provide sufficient evidence of 20 discriminatory intent by showing that the employer’s proffered reason for the adverse action is 21 false.” Amend. Compl. at ¶ 27. Yet Plaintiff fails even to allege WCHC’s proffered reason for 22 not hiring him was false.

23 Simultaneously, and somewhat confusingly, Plaintiff alleges the reason WCHC did not 24 pursue him as a candidate was the fact he “did not list a phone number on his CV.” Amend.
 25 Compl. at ¶ 59. However, Plaintiff fails to provide any factual allegations supporting this, and 26 again omits the glaring defects in his qualifications. Plaintiff alleges that WCHC’s “policy of not 27 considering a candidate that does not provide a phone number clearly discriminates against any

1 health care provider that cannot use a phone in the traditional manner.” Id. at ¶ 61. This is a 2 conclusory, legal statement which the Court is not bound to accept. See Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 679.
 3 Plaintiff also states: “The circumstance under which the interview occurred suggests that Dr.
 4 Garcia was subjected to a negative job action based on disability.” Id. at ¶ 63. Yet WCHC never 5 interviewed Plaintiff; in fact, his Complaint even states that WCHC “never responded to any of 6 [his] communications.” Id. at ¶ 21.

7 Plaintiff failed to exhaust administrative remedies prior to filing suit against WCHC 8 under the ADA. Therefore, Plaintiff’s ADA cause of action cannot survive an unenumerated 9 12(b) Motion to Dismiss. In the alternative, if the Court finds Plaintiff did exhaust his 10 administrative remedies, Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to satisfy two of the three elements required 11 to state a claim under the ADA. Therefore, Plaintiff’s ADA claim should be dismissed.

12

13 E. WCHC is entitled an award of attorney fees under the ADA.

14 Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205, a court may award attorney fees and costs under the ADA 15 where a plaintiff’s action is frivolous, unreasonable, or without foundation. See Lang v. Or.
 16 Shakespeare Festival Ass’n, 738 F. App’x 381, 383 (9th Cir. 2018); Clavon v. Roscoe Bk Rest.,
 17 Inc., No. CV 10-4908 ABC (PLAx), 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 196365, at *14 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 16, 18 2012) (awarding attorney fees “[b]ased on counsel’s pattern of filing frivolous ADA lawsuits.”).
 19 Here, Plaintiff’s Complaint lacks foundation or support, and is unreasonable and frivolous.
 20 Therefore, WCHC is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney fees.

21 CONCLUSION

22 Plaintiff’s Complaint cannot survive Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss under 12(b) or 23 12(b)(6). WCHC respectfully requests this Court dismiss Plaintiff’s Complaint with prejudice 24 and award WCHC reasonable attorney fees and costs.
